

Mary C. Denny, Ph.D.

Clinical Psychologist

Voice Mail: (206) 527-2273 ext. 328

Experience:

- Over thirty years' experience providing individual, group and couples psychotherapy and psychological assessment in varied multidisciplinary settings;
- Over fifteen years' experience in the psychological assessment and treatment of patients with chronic pain, illness and disability;
- Over twenty-five years' experience in spiritual direction, retreat work and adult education on both psychological and spiritual topics;
- Over ten years' experience supervising doctoral and postdoctoral clinical psychology trainees in the assessment and treatment of chronic pain.

Professional Interests:

Sharing my experience, knowledge and skills as a psychotherapist with adolescents and adults toward the following ends:

- Coping with infirmity and loss, Managing mood and anxiety disorders, Surviving and thriving after trauma,
- Improving and enhancing primary relationships,
- Sustaining interest and energy for learning and productivity, Affirming meaning and value in life, even in the face of suffering.

Education:

- Ph. D. Counseling Psychology, The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.
- M.A. Systematic Theology, Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley, California\
- B.S. Mathematics, College Misericordia, Dallas, Pennsylvania