Luke 8:9-15

Then his disciples asked him what this parable meant. He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to others I speak in parables, so that 'looking they may not perceive, and listening they may not understand.'" "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. The ones on the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. The ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe only for a while and in a time of testing fall away. As for what fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear; but as they go on their way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. But as for that in the good soil, these are the ones who, when they hear the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance.

Acts 16:11-15

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

11:15AM CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP LEADER SHEET – OCTOBER 2, 2011

CALL TO CONFESSION

We come now to the time of Confession, when we turn our hearts toward God, and ask for his forgiveness and guidance. Please pray with me...

Lord, we are like sheep, and we get lost. We forget the needs of our neighbors and do not love you above all else. We need a savior. Jesus, please hear us now, as we silently lift our prayers to you. (wait a few moments...)

...Thank you Lord, for hearing our prayers.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Hear these words from Psalm 23 in our story bible, which remind us of God's promise of unending love and protection.

God is my shepherd, he gives me all I need. He gives me wonderful places to rest and sleep.

He lets me splash and play in cool, clear waters. He helps me do what is right.

I am not afraid even in the darkest nights because you are with me, God, and Your protection comforts me.

When danger comes, you give me strength.

My life is filled with your love, and all I want is to be with you my whole life long. (pg 163)

My friends, through the grace of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Amen.

SHARING PEACE WITH ONE ANOTHER

Since Christ has opened his heart to us, let us open our hearts to one another, and God will be glorified.

The peace of Christ be with you always. AND ALSO WITH YOU.

Please greet your neighbor with the peace of Christ.

CALL TO THE OFFERING

Let us be faithful stewards of our time, our talents, and our money so that our treasure is in heaven and our giving pleases God. We will now receive the offering.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

(After the offerings are collected and the musical piece is finished, you may lead the congregation in a brief prayer of gratitude. Such as:

Good Shepherd, you graciously spread a table before us. We offer you these gifts, tokens of our grateful hearts. Nourish us at the feast of the Lamb, that we may proclaim to all the world your triumphant love in Jesus Christ. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Please stand for a reading from the Gospel of Luke, chapter 8, verses 9-15.
